

Northumberland Safe Places

Northumberland do not have a Safe Places scheme.

Instead they have Safe Reporting Centres, which provide a place in the community mainly for reporting incidents of hate crime to the police but have also been used by vulnerable people to raise other issues and seek support when they have been worried.

You can see more information about their Safe Reporting Centres at:

http://www.northumbria.police.uk/advice_and_information/advice_and_support/hatecrime/thirdpartyreporting/