

Inclusion North Family Advisors

Creating meaningful engagement with Families of adults with learning disabilities, autism, or both

Who we are:

We would like to introduce ourselves and tell you about the project we're working on for Inclusion North.

We are Shain Wells and Linda Dickinson and we are both family carers for people who have learning disabilities, Autism or both.

A bit about our work:

We will be exploring how we can engage with groups of family carers over the next 12 months

We want to ensure that Inclusion North understand the important issues for families such as knowing your rights, transition from children to adult services, so we can offer support that is right for you.

We will be contacting family organisations across the two areas over the next few weeks to discuss our work.
