You will meet with your co learner in between sessions to do homework.

We will give you a folder to support guided learning.

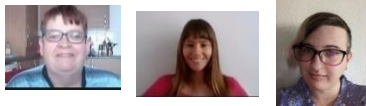

The course is free.

Each learner will have a paid Co-learner for all their course hours.

It will be delivered by the Leadership Coaches and Project Support coordinator.

There will be guest speakers to share their lived experiences.

Learners will be from the North East for the first course.

At the end of each course the team will help learners put their new skills into practice.

This course will be delivered again over the next two years.

We will have a first come first serve rule and once the 10 places have been filled you will be able to go on a waiting list to go on the course next year instead.
