Inclusion North News

Inclusion North will share an important news story and tell you about their own work here every two weeks.

Inclusion North and Photographer Rachael Munro-Fawcett are working together on a project call 'Involving Everyone'

The project celebrates the lives of people with a profound and multiple learning disability.

We are inviting autistic people and people with a learning disability in the North East to take photographs that celebrate the things that are important in their lives.

This can be photographs of things like

- objects
- places
- people

We will share the photos you give us:

- At the 'involving everyone' exhibition from 22nd October 2022 at The Word, in South Shields
- Online on the 'Involving Everyone' Instagram, Facebook and Twitter pages and on Inclusion North's website.

If you have anything to share please send it to Rachael@inclusionnorth.org or text/WhatsApp 07960388628. We need this by the 30th September.

If you are taking pictures of people – please get their permission.

In the news this week

The Conservative Party chose Liz Truss to be the new prime minister on Monday 5th September.

Liz Truss beat Rishi Sunak to take over from Boris Johnson as Prime Minister.

Everyone is worrying about energy and the cost-of-living crisis and how much everything is costing.

Ovo energy company has put a 10-point plan together to ask the government for support to stop millions of people going into poverty.

As the new prime minister, Liz Truss will need to decide what help to give everyone to be able to cope.

The NHS is worried about people not having enough money to buy enough food and keep warm. This will put a lot of pressure on the NHS.
