

28th October 2022

Inclusion North News

Inclusion North will share an important news story and tell you about their own work here every two weeks.

In the news this week

Rishi Sunak is now the Prime Minister and the leader of the Conservative Government.

Rishi Sunak took over from Liz Truss who resigned as Prime Minister on the 25th October.

Rishi Sunak is the first British Asian Prime Minister and the youngest Prime Minister in recent times.

He has now chosen the people he wants to have in the top jobs in the Government.

The mini budget which was planned for the end of October has now been put off until later in November. This will say what the Government will do about money for the country.

Rishi Sunak has to tackle lots of big issues like

- The economy, the cost of living and energy bills
- The war in Ukraine
- Supporting the NHS

More abuse in Doncaster –

There has been more news this week about the abuse that took place in Doncaster at three residential schools.

The Child Safeguarding Practice Review Panel identified a "culture of abuse", including evidence of violence and sexual harm.

There is an investigation by South Yorkshire Police into the abuse.

If we think abuse is happening we must speak up – knowing what our human rights are helps us to speak up.

Article 3 of the Human Rights Act 1998 states we all have:

The right not to be tortured or treated in an inhuman or degrading way

The British Institute for Human Rights has lots of information about human rights in easy read.

You can find this on their website.
