

North East Election Results

Information about who won the local elections

The elections took place on 2nd May 2024

There were 3 elections.

They were

- Local council elections
- Combined Authority elections
- Police and Crime Commissioner elections

Here we will give you some information about the candidates who won some of the elections.

There were 2 Combined authority elections.

These decided who would be

- The Mayor of Combined North East.
- The Mayor of Tees

There were 3 Police and Crime Commissioner elections

- Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland
- Police and Crime Commissioner for Durham
- Police and Crime Commissioner for Northumbria

Mayor of North East Combined Authority

Kim McGuinness was elected as Mayor.

Kim represents Labour and the Co-operative Party.

Kim is now the Mayor of County Durham, Gateshead, Newcastle, North Tyneside, Northumberland, South Tyneside and Sunderland.

Kim told us that

“People with a learning disability and autistic people should have the help they need to live a good life. That means more job support to train them for the workplace where necessary, it means help living independently if that's right for the person. And it means more community support for the families and friends who do so much unpaid work to help those with learning disabilities and autism.”

Mayor of Tees Valley

Ben Houchen was re-elected.

He has been the Mayor of Tees Valley since 2017

Ben represents the Conservative and Unionist Party

Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland

Matthew Storey was elected as Police and Crime Commissioner for Cleveland.

Matthew represents Labour and the
Co-operative Party.

Police and Crime Commissioner for Durham.

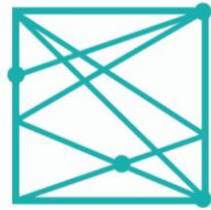

Joy Allen was re-elected.

Joy has been the Police and Crime Commissioner for Durham since 2021

She represents Labour and the Co-operative Party.

Police and Crime Commissioner for Northumbria.

NORTHUMBRIA
POLICE & CRIME
COMMISSIONER

Susan Dungworth

She represents the Labour and
Co-operative Party

Susan said

"As the Police & Crime Commissioner, I will ensure that hate crime against disabled people is treated seriously and that the criminal justice system is accessible for people with a learning disability, so they are able to report crimes, give evidence and get justice like anyone else."

