

25th June 2024 Inclusion North General Election News

There will be a general election on the 4th July 2024.

You can vote for who you think should manage the country.

Most of the people you can vote for are part of a political party.

A political party is a group of people who have similar ideas about how the country should be run.

The party who gets the most votes will be in charge. They will make decisions that are important in your life.

There are lots of different political parties in England. The different political parties are:

- Labour
- Conservative
- Liberal Democrats
- Green Party
- Reform UK
- Workers Party of Britain

We will tell you a bit about each one here.

The Labour Party

They want to make the economy more stable. This means everybody having enough money to live a comfortable life.

Labour want to spend more money on public services. This means things like the NHS, schools, roads.

The Conservative Party

They are sometimes called the Tories. They want to cut taxes. This means people keep more of their money.

They want to spend more money on the military. They want 18 years old to do National Service. This is working for the military for a year or doing community service.

The Liberal Democrats

They want to spend money on public services like schools, hospitals and childcare so everyone gets good care.

They want to reduce pollution and build good relationships with other countries.

The Green Party

They want to reduce pollution. They want to stop bad chemicals and rubbish being put in our rivers.

They want to make better housing by making sure homes are warm and stop landlords raising rents. Free school meals for all primary and secondary school children.

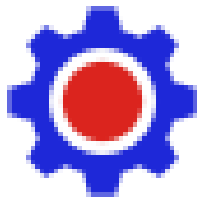

Reform UK

They used to be called The Brexit Party.

They want to stop illegal immigration. This means people cannot come to the United Kingdom without the Government saying they can. They want to make sure people aren't waiting a long time for doctor and hospital appointments.

Workers Party of Britain

They want to take money from rich people and give it to poor people. They want working people to be paid well and have safe jobs.

They want to spend money on the NHS to make it run better.

Everyone's vote is important. This is your chance to have a say in how you want the country to be run. It is also how people choose the MP for their area.

An MP will speak up in Parliament about issues in their area that are important to people.

Every area has its own MP. You can find out who you can choose from in your area on the Who Can I Vote For website.

Voting can be confusing. It is important to vote for someone who you think will do a good job at representing people where you live.

My Vote My Voice have made different guides on why to vote, how to vote and how to choose who you want to vote for.
