Inclusion North News

Inclusion North will share an important news story and tell you about their own work here every two weeks.

Inclusion North is no longer using X, which used to be called Twitter.

On the 28th October 2024, Inclusion North will stop using the social media site X. We do not think X is a safe place to share our work.

The social media site X does not fit with Inclusion North's values:

Inclusion – we work hard to include everyone, meet their needs, and make people feel welcome.

Respect – we respect ourselves and treat everyone else with respect.

Rights – everyone has rights, and we work hard to promote them.

Honesty - we are honest in everything we do.

Flexibility – we adapt what we do to find the best way of doing things.

What we will do next.

We will continue to share our work on

- Facebook

- Instagram

- YouTube

We will start using

- LinkedIn

If you want to follow us on LinkedIn, look for Inclusion North.

If you have any questions about how to follow Inclusion North on any of these social media sites, please get in touch with Melissa on 0113 2444792.

Wellbeing tip

If social media takes up a lot of your time and you think it is making you unhappy, the Mind website has lots of helpful information about looking after your mental health online.
