

Simon Ratcliffe

My Experience

I have been involved in learning disability work since 2003 when the Valuing People came out.

I have worked as a director and chaired meetings in voluntary organisations in the past.

I have experience of community fundraising.

I Enjoy.....

Voluntary work

Coach Holidays

Visiting castles and museums

My Skills and Knowledge

I have worked with local councillors and members of parliament.

I deliver Oliver McGowan training to people in health and social care.

I have good computer skills.

What is important to me

I like being involved in learning disability services.

What people say about me

People say I have lots of good experience and knowledge.

My lived experience helps other people.